LAXNESS IS COLOSSAL
Millions Wasted by Bureau
Supplies Sold for Low Cost at Time Needed by the Veterans

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—An amazing story of how millions of dollars' worth of hospital stores, badly needed for the treatment of disabled soldiers, were removed from the Perryville (Md.) supply depot and sold for a small fraction of their value was related today before the Senate committee investigating the Veterans' Bureau.

At the very same time the Bureau was selling these supplies at approximately 50 per cent of their invoice value, it was buying the same kind of goods at the full market value. While it was shipping new and good supplies out of the depot to a Boston concern for approximately 14 cents each, it was bringing in through another door more sheets of not so good a quality purchased from New York company for $1.03 each, according to the testimony.

WITNESSES SAY GOODS ARE REBOUGHT FOR THE FULL MARKET PRICE
The detailed story of the transaction, told principally by N. B. Hendrix, chief storekeeper at Perryville, caused the committee to exclaim in astonishment at times and at the conclusion of the session Gen. O'Ryan, chief counsel for the committee, burst forth: "The whole transaction is almost incredible. It is a perfect outrage."

Col. Forbes, former director of the bureau, under whose direction the deal was arranged and carried out, sat beside his counsel and listened attentively to the testimony without any display of feeling.

The decision to sell part of the Perryville depot was made by the bureau planning board on November 16, 1922. Within a few days the contract for the sale was made to the Thompson-Kelly Company of Boston and the goods were beginning to move out of the depot.

"Pretty fast work," Gen. O'Ryan commented. Some idea of the magnitude of the deal was furnished by the statement of Capt. Hendrix, chief storekeeper at Perryville, that the bureau was selling sheets, towels, blankets, gaiters and other materials at 50 per cent of their invoice value.

Leutenant-Commander Charles R. O'Leary, chief of the Bureau supply division during the transaction, insisted that the sheets were "reclaimed" and were unfit for use as hospital supplies. He questioned the accuracy of statements that the bureau was buying sheets at the same time it was selling them.

Thereupon Gen. O'Ryan produced documents to show the bureau bought thousands of sheets for the Perryville depot and called on Hendrix, the storekeeper, to the stand to testify that the sheets sold at the time of the transaction were new and unused.

PROTEST UNDETERRED
Among the goods sold to the Thompson-Kelly Company, Hendrix testified, were $2,925 suits of winter pajamas, made by Red Cross workers throughout the country. These were of such quality, it was stated, that they brought the government 20 cents per suit. Winter pajamas are now badly needed by the troops.

The Public Health Service protested vigorously against the sale of some of the stores, according to Hendrix, but their protest was unheeded.

Large stores of whisky and narcotics were not included in the sale. Previous testimony has been to the effect that Forbes proposed to find a market for this, too. Hendrix said that the quantities of liquor and drugs withdrawn were small. He never permitted any to go out without a proper requisition, he said, but he admitted that he might have been possible for his superiors to have taken some without his knowledge. He started to testify about the taking of a suit case full but Gen. O'Ryan said his knowledge was hearsay and promised to produce a witness tomorrow to give direct testimony.

JUGO-SLAVIA ACCEPTS OFFER OF BULGARIA
SOFIA, Nov. 5.—Bulgaria and Jugoslavia have reached an agreement in principle on all the disputes between them, Bulgaria's offer of 300,000,000 leva ($17,000,000) at the normal rate of exchange being accepted. The negotiations between the two countries, which mainly concerned military questions during the war, were suspended because of the attack by three armed men on the Jugoslav military attaché, Col. Krastich, here last Friday, but there has been no rupture in diplomatic relations, and Jugoslavia is expected to pursue the incident further.

Prosecution Almost Completes Its Case First Day, Against Capt. Watson

By CHARLES SLOAN
SAN DIEGO, Nov. 5.—Moving with precision, the Navy's greatest court-martial designed to fix the blame and pass punishment on those responsible for alleged irregularities in connection with the wrecking of Destroyer Squadron No. 11 at Honda Bay on September 8, last, got under way today.

A dozen witnesses were examined in the trial of Capt. Edward H. Watson, commander of the squadron, and the day ended with but little left to do from the prosecution's side.

PLEADS IN FIRM VOICE
Capt. Watson pleaded not guilty to the charges of "culpable negligence," "through negligence" and "dereliction of duty" in the wrecking of the ship.

RADIO MEN CALLED
C. R. Glascock, radio man, third class, who was on duty at Point Arguello radio station from 8 to 10 o'clock on the night of the wreck, was called to the stand to testify.

Three Other Knights Found Guilty in Joint Trial of Morehouse Parish Raid Cases

By A. F. NIGHT WIRE
BASTROP (La.) Nov. 5.—Four alleged members of the Morehouse Parish Ku Klux Klan, including Capt. J. K. Skiptwith, Exalted Cyclops, today were found guilty of "carrying firearms on the premises of an inn" in connection with the raid on the Morehouse Parish last night. Sentences will be pronounced later.

Others found guilty were Benton Pratt, Marvin Pickett and W. G. McIntosh. Three alleged Klansmen tried jointly with the four, were found not guilty. They were Sam Braddock, Sam Cox and Cud Pickett. The seven were tried jointly before Judge Fred M. Odon in the Sixth District Court. They were charged with a raid on the home of Alonzo Braddock, farmer, who was believed to be engaged in the illegal manufacture of whisky.

FIRST OF SERIES
The cases were the first of a series of crimes which have been set for trial this week. Capt. Skiptwith testified he organized the party to make the raid on the Braddock home in the manner followed by the raiders to make an arrest for a misdemeanor and without a warrant. The Sheriff said he would want a warrant.

Refuses to Yield on Conference
Discussion With Jusemand Fails to Develop Basis for Compromises

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—There was a showdown here today between France and the United States on the question of the scope of the proposed German reparations survey but it failed to jar the deadlock of two nations.

For one hour and forty minutes Secretary of States Hughes discussed the matter with Ambassador Jusemand who returned from Paris today and hastened to the State Department to present his government's objections to an unrestricted inquiry into the capacity of Germany to pay.

The French ambassador was in a state of unusual excitement when he emerged from Mr. Hughes' office and confronted the reporters.

A few hours afterward what occurred at the conference of the Secretary and the Ambassador leaked out indicating that no basis of agreement had been found.

By A. F. NIGHT WIRE
SAN DIEGO, Nov. 5.—The public big lings in Balboa Park will not be used by Russian propagandists if the American Legion can prevent it, according to officers of San Diego Post today. The issue has been placed squarely up to the park board.

For the last several weeks advertisements have been sent broadcast announcing that the "Friends of Soviet Russia" would show pictures in the auditorium the afternoon of the 12th inst., to represent conditions as they exist today in Russia.

HELD PROPAGANDA

BENNY LEONARD AND LEW TENDLER TO TANGLE AT TIJUANA

Lightweight Ringsters May Mix Next Month

Champion Announces That Coffroth Will Promote Return Battle in City Across Border

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Benny Leonard, world's champion lightweight scrapper, announced here today that arrangements for a fight between himself and Lew Tendler, the Philadelphia lightweight scrapper, were practically completed. The proposed bout is to take place in Tijuana, Mex., under the promotion of Joe Coffroth, manager of the Tijuana race track, sometime this winter, the lightweight champ said.

Leonard and Tendler have met twice before, with Leonard winning both times. In the first bout, Leonard's shade was unusually slight. But in the second, a fifteen-round affair, he was in New York, and he took every round from the Philadelphia scrapper and won the fight by a wide margin.

Leonard said he would like to build a huge arena on the race track grounds in Tijuana to stage the championship fight. Coffroth previously stated he would build two or three new additional important features on the track.

Richard Plans Ring Bout for Jack Renault

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Tex Rickard began negotiations to match Jack Renault, Canadian heavyweight, who knocked out Floyd Johnson last Friday night, with either Tom Gibbons, St. Paul lightweight, or Harry Wills, Negro title contender.

Rickard has underwritten the negotiations in the interest of a New York newspaper's Christmas fund. If arranged, the promoter plans to stage the match around holiday time, possibly December 31, at Madison Square Garden.

Franklin, manager of Wills, has had some differences with Rickard, and announced he would not sign for any match with the Garden promoter, but it is believed he might alter his attitude as the bout would be a charity affair. Should efforts to sign the Negro be unavailing, however, Gibbons probably will be selected.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—William F. Hoppe, world's champion 14.3 ball-line billiardist, defeated Jake Schafer II, tonight in one of the greatest matches in the history of the game, 500 points to 447 and will meet Walker Cochran of Los Angeles, in Chicago, at a date yet to be announced in a play-off for the title for which they now are tied.

Hoppe won the bank, chose the white ball and counted three, making a difficult shot across the table with his cue ball frozen to rail. Schafer had the balls together in four shots. He lost them at ten, but gathered them again with a daring three-rail on his fourteenth shot. They were wide open again at thirty, but Schafer drove them well and continued to count.

California Has Best Record for Season

Andrew L. Smith, who has been coaching football at the University of California for the last half dozen years, is accompanying a troupe of some twenty-five Golden Bears to Los Angeles this week-end preparatory to the annual clash between the Berkeley eleven and the Trojans from U.S.C. scheduled for Saturday afternoon in the Coliseum. Mr. Smith went to Palo Alto three days ago and while he was enjoying a quiet little game between Stanford and the Olympic Club his own boys were having the time of their young lives with some Jackrabbits from Nevada. As a result Smith now goes about with his lads, and it is rather a safe bet that the Golden Bears will not even attend a movie or meals unaccompanied until after Saturday.

Andy Smith qualified for a seat alongside "Sport" Brown when he walked off and left his Golden Bears to tear up the Nevada Jackrabbits last Saturday with no mother to guide him. But he need not be so sure that Stanford did it, for his team at least managed to hold Nevada to a no-score tie, whereas the Stanford-Olympic eleven of 1921 came out later by 21 to 7 to White.

In both cases Stanford was concerned indirectly in the funny happenings, for Stanford left his Tigers to watch U.S.C. and Stanford play at Harvard Field, while Smith left the Bears to watch Stanford ruin the Olympic Club at Palo Alto, potential strength, are far now sorry that they did it, and will never do it again.

Those who missed the White-Olympic game last Saturday at Quakerstown missed a genuine football game, hard fought and spectacular in the extreme. The game brought out the fact, however, that the Occidental Tigers, with great potential strength, are far from a championship eleven at this time, despite their record of no defeats in conference games.

Teamwork was completely missing, particularly in the backfield, and if it hadn't been for a magnificent individual effort of Riddorff the Tigers might have finished on the little end of the score. The team has weight, speed and no lack of fight and willingness, but apparently are very shy of team work. They have lots of good plays, but don't work them, a sure sign of lack of

MANUAL IN TILT WITH MECHANICS

Turns in Card of 86 for Low Gross Cup

Eleven Players Break 100 on Links at Wilshire; Medal Round at Hollywood on Today

Three Undelected Eleven Struggle Friday in City League Contests

Manual Arts, Poly and Los Angeles High, the three undelected teams in the City League, got into action Friday afternoon and when the day's work is done at least one of these eleven will no longer boast of an unblemished record.

Jefferson, the fourth team to play, meets the Pioneers at Housa Field, while the Artisans and Mechanics hook up at Harvard Field. On the basis of past games it looks as if Poly would be the first of the "Big Three" to fall, for Los Angeles is a pretty safe bet to trim the Presidents.

Both games should be well worth watching. Although Manual will undoubtedly defeat Voyle Brennan's outfit, the Mechanics have enough beef and fight to make the afternoon's entertainment an exceedingly interesting one. The Teller backfield possesses plenty of class and has a terrific punch, while the line is big and powerful.

Herb White's Pioneers are also good, but not in the same class with the Artisans. The Wilshire team has a lot of potential strength, but the boys haven't actually found themselves as yet, although their win over Hollywood two weeks ago indicates a good deal of drive.

Jefferson has met the same kind of treatment on all sides, defeats being the order of the week.

Franklin, Hollywood and Lincoln take the day off.

Finishing the medal round three strokes in front of the rest of the eighty-five entrants, Miss Doreen Kavanagh fulfilled the expectations of the golfing population yesterday by turning in low-gross card in the Wilshire Country Club's invitational tournament for women, scoring an excellent 86 for the course, Miss Kavanagh negotiated the first nine in 40, but fell off a little on her way in. She played close to par for the entire eighteen holes, and had little trouble solving the fast greens.

Mrs. John Worley was second with an 89, being the only player besides Miss Kavanagh to break 90. Miss Mary Browne finished in 90, her score being slightly higher than anticipated, while Miss Margaret Cameron had an off day, taking 102 strokes to complete her round.

Eleven of the four golfers had scores under 100, the rest of the cards averaging about 114. The new system of drawing fights according to handicap in the medal round was a huge success, only one player failing to make her fight. All match play will be from scratch.

PARIS DRIVING HARD BARGAIN

BY VINCENT SHEEHAN
(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
DUESSELDORF, Nov. 5.—The text of the peace agreement between French and German industrialists in the Ruhr, given out by the Stinnes interests, indicates what a hard bargain France is driving with the representatives of the occupied territory. Nevertheless, the text is so worded that Fritz Thyssen and his associates intend to sign this week rather than lose everything through a dangerous attempt to play with the unemployment situation and the French threat to seize private and industrial property in the Ruhr.

The summary of the peace terms is as follows: (1) The Ruhr government must pay the French government the tax on October 1st. The Ruhr government must pay the French government the tax on October 1st. The Ruhr government must pay the French government the tax on October 1st.

HAYNES URGES CO-OPERATION

Wants All Police to Join in Enforcement Work

Army of 200,000 Authorized to Uphold Amendment

Statement Pledges Effort for Co-ordination

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Prohibition Commissioner Haynes wants the army of 200,000 policemen, marshals, sheriffs and State prohibition officials in the United States to participate actively in the war on illicit rum.

In a statement pledging every effort of the Federal enforcement arm of the government "to carry out a program of co-ordination," Mr. Haynes called attention to the size of the anti-rum army that could be called into aggressive action.

"An inquiry recently made of the United States concerning the number of policemen, marshals, sheriffs and deputies, State prohibition officers and other officers authorized to make arrests, and under oath to uphold and enforce the Constitution of the United States, shows that there are over 200,000 of such officers," Mr. Haynes said. "Here is an army whose maintenance is under each, to uphold the Constitution of the United States, and to enforce the laws of the United States, and to protect the public peace and order."

"But if this great army of men, who are trained and equipped for the purpose of enforcing the laws of the United States, and who are paid for their services, are not co-ordinated, and if they are not working together, the result will be a waste of money and a failure to enforce the laws of the United States."

"I do not hesitate to say that the only way to enforce the laws of the United States, and to protect the public peace and order, is by co-ordinating the efforts of all the law enforcement officers of the United States, and by having them work together in a unified and aggressive manner."

"I have used it exclusively for years in the treatment of my patients. For keeping the back, liver, kidney and bowels in good condition, and for toning up the system in general, Tanlac is the best medicine I have ever used."

"I, L. A. Lorentzen, graduate of the University of California, San Francisco, and for many years a leader in my profession, pays the following tribute to Tanlac:

"I have used it exclusively for years in the treatment of my patients. For keeping the back, liver, kidney and bowels in good condition, and for toning up the system in general, Tanlac is the best medicine I have ever used."

HELP GAINS US JAPAN'S GOOD WILL

Newspapers and People Show Utmost Friendliness to Americans

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
TOKIO, Nov. 5.—Americans in Japan today cannot help noticing the remarkable increase of Japanese friendliness toward the United States which is the outstanding development following the earthquake disaster. Appreciation of America's unstinted aid is daily becoming more widespread in this country.

Especially impressing is the friendly tone of the Japanese newspapers, some of which formerly slandered every opportunity to direct hostile criticism against the United States. Today practically all Japanese newspapers are lavish in their praise of American generosity and humanitarianism.

It is significant that in the dispute attending China's adherence to the contract made with the Federal Coal Telegraph Company, an American concern, the issue has been practically ignored editorially, although it offers the Jintokais an excellent opportunity to berate American interests and open up an old score. The present attitude would indicate that Japanese newspapers were anxious to see an amicable settlement of the Chinese radio problem.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The "heartfelt thanks of the Japanese government and of the people for the splendid services" rendered by Admiral Edwin A. Anderson and Brig.-Gen. McCoy in the recent earthquake and fire emergency in Japan are expressed in a letter to Secretary Hughes from Ambassador Hanhara, which was made public today at the State Department.

Mrs. Wanamaker Obtains Divorce Decree in Paris

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PARIS, Nov. 5.—The courts have granted a divorce to Mrs. Rodman Wanamaker. She formerly was Miss Violet Cruger and was married to Mr. Wanamaker in London in 1909.

Palais De Justice records show that on July 20 of this year Mr.
Wanamaker wrote his wife a letter refusing to live with her and saying it was impossible to continue marital relations. Mr. Wanamaker's address is given as 44 Rue Des Petites Ecuries, which means he lived there when he came to Paris to accept necessary service papers in Mrs. Wanamaker's suit. While the divorce was granted in favor of Mrs. Wanamaker it mentioned that they married under a separation of property clause.

TERRIER SAVES NINE

Snuffs Gas Fumes and Rescues
Master of the House

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Lady, a fox terrier, repulsed four times today, carried on and saved nine persons from death by asphyxiation by coal gas fumes. She became uneasy when she sniffed strange odors in the home of her master, Samuel Gelbart of Whitestone, Queens. So she jumped on his bed and awakened him. He cuffed her and went back to sleep.
Again she jumped upon him. He threw her to the floor this time.
For a third time she jumped on the bed and was thrown aside.
Finally she licked his face, and thoroughly awakened. Gelbart got up just as his son fell unconscious to the floor. Three other members of his family and three of their guests he found in their beds, unconscious.
All were revived by a physician.

FASHION favors the foil of black-and-white. Paris sponsors it—women find it stunningly becoming! Always more or less in the limelight, Black-and-White now takes the center of the stage.

ERMINE plays an important part in carrying out the black-and-white thought. As does black velvet and satin. The frocks sketched beggar description. And they are but two of a striking assemblage.

EVERY other smart tailor in New York has its WHITE GARDENIA! The vogue for it is sweeping West. Here and there it has already made its appearance. At Hamburger's, white gardenias, 1.00—colored gardenias, 1.25. First Floor.

SUITABLE companions for the black and white frock—black satin hats with white ermine trimmings. Off-the-face models and kindred styles which women favor as dance hats. 15.00 to 35.00. Second Floor.

WITH the change of the silhouette comes a change in woman's attitude toward the corset. No longer dare she ignore its claims. And, her decision when she chooses is apt to be in favor of the wrap-around. Brocade, coutil, satin combined with webbing. 8.00 to 25.00. Second Floor.

SCANT and narrow are the necessary requisites for the heavy black crepe slip to wear 'neath the tube frock. Lace and rounded trimmed—10.95. A white crepe slip with lace flounce is 8.95. Second Floor.

THE Hardman

Hamburger's Announces Exclusive Agency of Hardman Pianos Official Piano of the Metropolitan Opera House

Hamburger's Music Salons take pleasure in announcing the distribution of Hardman Pianos. Pianos used solely by great Metropolitan Opera House artists.

The late Enrico Caruso in speaking of the Hardman says: "It is my favorite. The sympathetic quality of tone existing in the Hardman, combined with the resonance and this remarkable power of standing in tune, give it, in my judgment, first place, and I, therefore, always find a delight in using it."

The Hardman is also the favorite piano of Tetrassini, Destinn Chamlee, the great Tenor of the Metropolitan Opera House, and artists and musical institutions the world over.

It is a matter of record that the Hardman is incomparable for its enduring fidelity and richness of tone.

During eighty years of piano making, the Hardman has attained singular distinction in the musical world.

Upright Pianos—Grand Pianos—Reproducing Pianos

Come in and hear the Hardman. It is worth knowing about. Found only at Hamburger's in Los Angeles. Purchasable on convenient terms.

COLLEGES FORESTER AND TWO OTHERS DAMAGED HER LANDS

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—State forester M. B. Pratt today was served with papers in an injunction and damage suit. He and two other State employees have been named defendants in an action filed in the Superior Court of California by Mrs. S. C. Smead, owner of land in the vicinity of the Mt. Diabloski fire station in San Francisco.

The plaintiff says that the State forester and his two associates cut and without her consent and have destroyed or removed trees and shrubs on her property.

Pratt says the action is the outgrowth of a "voluntary dispute" between himself, the plaintiff and neighbors. In order to reach the site of the lookout station he said the State had obtained permission to build a trail on land adjoining Smead's. That this trail now is being made in addition to one of a survey of Santa Cruz

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Trading in listed bonds on the New York Stock Exchange was in somewhat reduced volume today, due probably to two causes. The major influence undoubtedly was the public offering of two large new issues, the American Telephone and Telegraph $100,000,000 5 1/2s and the Province of Alberta, Canada 5 1/2s. Both issues were quickly subscribed and the books closed. The fact that tomorrow is a holiday also tended to limit activities. Prices generally held firm, the secondary railroad mortgages and public utility items, particularly finding a fair buying demand. Investment bankers report many orders from the West for both the income and adjustment railroad issues and the bonds of public utility corporations. Some of the copper company bonds responded to the more hopeful commodity market news, while oil company issues generally receded slightly.		Foreign Exchange (Furnished by Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank of New York)

In this country, the tourist gets into one of the very places may find some canyon, some river bottom or some desert a regular graveyard of abandoned cars. They have been stripped of everything that might be of value and then thrown loose to the elements. Many of them are still standing, but they are not for their owners. Some bit of the great outcrops have been turned into a junk shop, and the making of motors there is no end. In spite of the fact that production in the tourist industry is 30 per cent higher than before, there is a general belief among those in the trade that next year will be of the usual, if not of war, proportions. There will be, no doubt until all the world is on

Jazz is not to be banished or slain by the use of a few caustic or critical phrases. It is deeper than that—in fact, it sinks into the mind less of the rising generation and not even to be displaced by blasting power, yet there are thousands who frankly admire its rhythmic discords and horrendous harmonies.

Several prominent musicians, including a prominent pianist and the director of a great orchestra, aver that attention to jazz is detrimental to our national appreciation for genuine music. The matter of the monograph recording, for instance, about the only movement noted is the rivalry of the producers

Of course, the scientists have not yet re-

But, thank heaven, it didn't rain.

THIS IS THE DAY

First of the British Orders in Council, to stop commerce of neutral nations with France, were issued in 1793 during the Napoleonic wars. Between arbitrary acts of war. Both England and France American commerce for a time was almost destroyed.

The republic of Panama was recognized as an independent power by the United States in the year 1903.

New York State adopted woman's suffrage in the year 1917. On the same day Ohio rejected it by a majority of 136,000.

And the public is so petty, so unreasonable, so stern in the pholding of lies, lies, lies.

I remind them of the vague for my psychoanalysis, which should aid us to recognize the truth about ourselves as well as about other people. I assure them that this is the duty of all others in which capable, distinguished men could afford to share the truth. That this is the age in which we talk glibly about our complexes, when men of their ilk so carelessly psyche themselves—and others—and they gratefully and deeply remind me that it is also the age in which professional moralists are raising Cain about

HIGH SCORE BUTTER

What it is and what it means to you

When the expert buys butter, he buys it by "score." Flavor, body, color, moisture, salt content, packaging—each is considered and a value given to it. These values, totaled, represent the score—90, 91, 92, 93, 94—or whatever the figure may be.

As the score is high or low, so is the value of the butter determined.

As the score of a butter is uniform or not—one day with the next—one season with another—just that extent is the brand in question dependable. To just that extent is it a brand worthy of preference, by you.

For Instance—
The Navy!
It is by score that the United States Navy Experts buy butter.

It is by score that butter is selected for export to foreign lands. And rightly so—for only the very finest butter will retain its freshness at the end of strenuous ocean voyages—particularly into tropical countries. And only the best is good enough for Navy men.

And in Your Home!
You, too, want the butter that you serve, to be the best. How, then, are you going to be sure of it?

Golden State BUTTER

THE HIGH SCORE

The grocer who sells Golden State when you ask for "butter," proves himself dependable and worthy of your trade. He might make more money on poorer-quality brands. (For, naturally, low-grade butter can be made and sold to the dealer more cheaply.) But he values your respect—he wants to justify your confidence. Let him know that you appreciate his service.

BAKED BELL PEPPERS
Cut three bell peppers in two lengthwise, remove seeds and strings and parboil in boiling water five minutes; drain and fill each half with a dressing made by mixing three cups of bread crumbs with two cups of chopped boiled ham, a seasoning of salt, pepper and nutmeg, one tablespoon of lemon juice and four tablespoons of melted butter. Place in an earthen baking dish, brush with melted butter, pour in half a cup of meat stock and bake a nice brown. Serve hot in the baking dish.

PRUNE FLUFF
Cover one pound of prunes with boiling water and let stand five minutes; drain and cover with cold water and let stand overnight. Drain, remove seeds and press the fruit through a sieve. Add one cup of whipping cream and gradually fold in the prune pulp. Serve in tall glasses and sprinkle with finely chopped nut meats.

LAMB FRICASSEE
Have the butcher cut a breast of lamb in pieces one and a half inches square, season them with salt and pepper, and brown in a hot fat.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS
Body Builders
Foods rich in lime and necessary to the system are milk, cheese, spinach, eggs, cabbage, onion, lettuce and celery.

Joining Lace
Never made a French seam when joining lace. Try to patch the design over on the same design on the other end; carefully whip one on to the other. If this is done the join can scarcely be seen.

At Lunch Time
A little jar with a screw-on lid should be in the kitchen's school lunch kit to hold a little surprise and make a more appetizing lunch. A dainty salad, a nourishing pudding or a tempting sweet could be hidden there.

Once a Sifter
When the flour after has become too shabby for work as a sieve it can be used as a sifter. It can be placed inside the saucepan and the eggs can be placed in the water at once and all can be removed together when done.

Protect Your Own
A way to protect one's rubbers and also save family arguments is for each member of the household to print his initials in ink on the arch of the overshoe. This part rarely becomes soiled and the initials can be seen readily.

Odors and Ends
Keep clean rather than make clean. A piece of velvet makes an excellent polishing cloth. A weak solution of caustic soda will remove long-standing iron rust. A half cup of vinegar in the water when boiling ham will greatly improve the flavor of the ham. Steel wool is invaluable in keeping aluminum bright and glass cooking dishes clean.

EDISON FRANCHISE TO BE RENEWED TRANSMISSION LINES ARE ALLOWED TO PASS THROUGH CITY

The City Council yesterday instructed the City Attorney to prepare the necessary franchise to renew to the Southern California Edison Company the right for its transmission lines to pass through the city. The company will pay $1000 for the franchise, which will apply to all existing transmission lines. In case additional lines are built through the city the company will pay the city $10 a mile for these.

The municipal power bureau now operates the Los Angeles business of the Southern California Edison Company for which the city paid $11,998,998, but it is necessary for the company's transmission lines from the Edison generating plants in Fresno county to pass through the city so that the company can serve its customers at Long Beach and other Southern California communities.

AUTO PETITION BEING CHECKED

Referendum on Ordinance on Car Weight Certain

Protest Signed by More Than 40,000 Persons

Report to Council Will be Made Thursday

City Clerk Dominguez yesterday started a force of deputies checking the referendum petition filed by the Automobile Club of Southern California to bring to a vote of the people the ordinance enacted by the City Council on September 25, last, increasing the truck load limit in Los Angeles to 26,000 pounds instead of the State law limit of 22,000. The club opposed the ordinance on the ground, supported by engineering data, that the increased limit would destroy Los Angeles street pavements, and the officers and directors of the club are confident that the ordinance will be repealed by voters.

40,000 SIGNATURES The petition as filed bore 40,000 signatures, although 10,775 are sufficient to refer the ordinance to the people. When the checking shows a sufficient number, the City Clerk will cease checking, as the club does not desire to put the city to an expense of $90,000 for a special election, which would be mandatory if the petition bore signatures of 10 per cent of the registered voters. A 10 per cent petition will be conducted at noon today in the Paulina Cafe banquet room. Arthur Akin of the Garvan Lodge will preside.

BOND PETITION CIRCULATED Circulators of a petition to refer to the voters the ordinance enacted by the Council authorizing the expenditure of $25,000 for the purchase of 10,000 electric properties of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation as the basis of the asking of the voters by the Power Bureau of a bond issue to purchase these properties have until the 26th inst. to file their petition. The circulators said they expected to file in excess of 10,000 signatures most of which they said already had been obtained. If, on checking, the petition bears the signatures of 10,775 voters of the city, the spending of the $25,000 will be delayed until the voters have an opportunity to vote on the proposition at the State-county primaries next August.

CASE OF IRVINE RANCH DEFENDANTS PUT OVER

The defendants in the mail-fraud case involving the Irvine ranch matter—Dr. W. H. Price, Dr. M. E. London, Gertrude Caldwell, B. E. Clark and Clinton Johnson—were arraigned before United States District Judge James yesterday, but for the third time the matter of their arraignment went over for a new indictment in the case is about to be returned. It is also among the rumors connected with the hearing that one of the defendants, Gertrude Caldwell, who was secretary of the Society of the New School of Applied Christian Psychology, with headquarters at 1140 West Twenty-seventh street, will be one of the leading witnesses in behalf of the government in the coming prosecution.

RADIO TELLS OF STEAMER IN DISTRESS

Nayarit of Mexican State Line Slowly Limping to Ensenada Port

Radio messages picked up yesterday afternoon by the Radio Corporation of America indicate that the Mexican State Line steamer Nayarit, in command of Capt. Antonio Garcia, is in distress off the coast of San Diego and is limping slowly towards Ensenada. The fragmentary messages state that the vessel's engines are almost entirely out of commission but that the ship at present is in no immediate danger. The engines were disabled by trouble which developed in the oil feed pumps. The Nayarit, which is the first ship of the Mexican State Line to resume service between Los Angeles and ports on the West Coast of Mexico, left the harbor here at midnight Sunday for Ensenada and other Mexican ports. Service to these ports had been entirely stopped by Red uprisings. The vessel carries a crew of thirty-eight men and five passengers from Los Angeles and four from San Francisco.

WOMEN LAWYERS TO MEET The Women Lawyers' Club will conduct its regular meeting at the office of the president, Miss Constance Leitch, 1007 Van Nuys Building, at 4:30 p.m. next Thursday, the 8th inst. L. E. Moelle of the Power Bureau will speak on "The White Giant."

MASONS TO MEET A meeting of the Masters' and Wardens' Association of Los Angeles will be conducted at noon today in the Paulina Cafe banquet room. Arthur Akin of the Garvan Lodge will preside.

FINE ARTS OPENS

TRIUMPH FOR ACTORS IN BRILLIANT SHAW PLAY

By Grace Kingsley
It was a brilliant crowd which politely surged into the new Fine Arts Theater on Grand avenue last night, filling it to overflowing, to see Wilhelmina Wilkes's first production at that house, which Bernard Shaw's "Androcles and the Lion." This was preceded by a curtain-raiser called "Time Will Tell."

"Androcles and the Lion," the boy in the bookshop had mused, "is it a boy's story?"

"I don't care for these nature plays," said the fat man, gazing at a billboard.

"You're wrong," quoth the thin lady glancing over at the box office. "That Greek drama is so darned thrilling!" yelped a young fan-

per. But, of course, there were plenty of the literati to correct them—to tell them condescendingly that "Androcles and the Lion" is a satirical comedy—that it satirizes—or—well, that it's a satirical comedy.

Let me hasten breathless to tell you this. You will get a lot of laughs out of "Androcles and the Lion," laugh such as you would roar at in a Chaplin comedy. You don't have to think about any deeper meaning at all. Its deeper meanings are quite painless. I assure those of you who hate to use your brains out of office hours.

Most of Shaw's plays are entertaining. But "Androcles" is a riot.

That the Shaw should have an animal actor in a play of his, exactly like the "Follies"—shows you what a rollicking mood he must have been in when he wrote this one.

I suppose that Shaw just had to write that long preface on the psychology of religion which you find preceding his play when you read it, to excuse himself for putting anything so thoroughly funny as "Androcles!"

Much cleverer people than I am have discredited Shaw. They have read him and they want to get something different out of "Androcles" from a thought man, point, according to experience and temperament. The great point is that everybody will get a lot of fun. Anyhow, any satire that any of us will always be aimed at the other fellow!

Let me sum up our different conclusions in the statement that Shaw never can read the temptation to show us that we are mere human beings, and that hypocrisy and pompousness are funny bubbles that he loves to burst. Even the Christian martyrs were real folk. Likeable people, too, those martyrs—real stuff in them.

In "Androcles" there is the strong-minded Lavinia, free thinker, ready to die for the right to think for herself, but sending something like a "Christ" teaching that she had ever known, and that she was obstinate enough to die in defense of it.

There is the militant Ferrovius, who just couldn't make his life believe when he heard his faith derided, and who hid himself in his faith that did the trick of making him come alone. There is the gentle but malicious Androcles with the inferiority complex, who took to friendship of dumb brutes to escape a talkative lion. He couldn't even bear to see a lion suffer, but who exclaimed when facing death in the arena, "I'm glad the lion is hungry. Not that I want him to suffer, poor chap! But then he'll enjoy eating me so much more. There's a cheerful side to everything!"

There are, however, some really fine moments of exaltation, while the prisoners face death, but these pass fantastically into comedy again.

The playing of the Shaw piece is entirely adequate, which is saying a great deal. Franklin Pangborn is subtle, clever, humorous, flexible of mood in fact the very fine artist, in the role of Androcles, extracting every drop of satirical meaning as well as of fun from his lines. The Fine Arts Theater has a very great acquisition in him. His talents are perhaps especially suited to the little theater, where intimate plays are the vogue.

Heater Jerome Eddy was lovely, charming, as the level-headed, but extremely feminine Lavinia. Her talents have been lauded in pictures. The stage is really her forte. Her enunciation, her stage presence, as finished as though she had been on the stage all her life.

One of the real lions of the production is the Lion! The Lion is played by a mysterious personage called "M. E." in a mirth-provoking lion's skin. M. E.'s manipulation of the lion's head, eyes and mouth makes a character what in less high-brow productions one would alude to as a scream.

Carroll Lee is a young man who is going far, or we miss our guess. He is a newcomer to the stage, but gives great promise.

The other characters were all played with just the right finesse and exactly the proper balance between satire and burlesque which the play requires. The players are Blanche Dodge, Joseph McManus, Jerome Collamore, Karyl Marker, Robert Romana, Max Pollock, William Raymond, Richard Sloan, Victor Jorey, Ed Bullis, Earle Adams, Robert Moore.

"Time Will Tell" stars Ruth Renick, a dainty, adorable Pierrette, supported by John Hughes, Karyl Marker and Jerome Collamore.

All praise to Wilhelmina Wilkes, who produced the play, and Dickson Morgan, who staged it. The scenic investments drew applause themselves.

A "Play With a Punch," of which I rather suspect him to be the papa, inasmuch as no author's name is mentioned.

It is an amusing sketch showing a rehearsal of a play by a bromide author, with a dumb leading lady and a sarcastic matinee idol as lead-in man. It will appeal especially to the acting profession, because of its little satirical touches about new plays.

LAUDER HAS HUGE SUCCESS

Harry Lauder is a singer! at the Philharmonic this week. And when Harry Lauder sings, so does everybody else. Harry Lauder with his song, his highland fling, his contagious smile, and his merry brogue—for Sir Harry is Harry Lauder, just the same as pigs is pigs.

A bonnie lassie, a wee house, the old home town, a jug o' Scotch—and by the way there was lots of it, or them, if you prefer, there, last night, Lauder sang about his home. He sings about his home as if he loved them—as if they were something to be cherished. And it is in this magnificent song, some human appeal that Lauder holds his audience night after night, season in and season out.

"THE WANING SEX"

SMART HATTON PLAY AMUSES
AT EGAN THEATER

By Edwin Schallert
If you're not interested in modern feminine affairs I wouldn't advise you to go to the Egan Theater this week. You have to be a regular attendant at the women's clubs or ultra-husband to appreciate the satire of Frederic and Panny Hatton's brand new play, "The Waning Sex."

The premiere attracted a smart audience from the professional and social realm. Even the other openings apparently didn't interfere, for though there were two important ones, "The Perfect Fool" with Ed Wynn, at the Mason, and George Bernard Shaw's "Androcles and the Lion" at the new Fine Arts Theater, that at Egan's drew capacity.

"The Waning Sex" is comedy with a breeze. At least, it starts that way. Sometimes it becomes too sentimentally sentimental, but when the climax is a fairly stiff sale.

The plot is a trifle, of course, but the situations are good and the lines are better.

"By and by women won't want us for husbands," says one of the men; "all that we'll be good for is to provide the women with a husband." That's the new comedy expressed, and it grows into engaging satire before the curtain falls on the initial scene.

After that there are some lapses. Nothing very serious, but they will provide a change for some rewriting. The scene where the leading feminine character, the lawyeress, rams the motion-picture stars a husband into her is cheap. It needs a good going over.

The play moves nicely into high again when the widow and the woman start to prove the worth and merit of modern feminine philosophy as contrasted with the Victorian type.

The Hattons have a way of doing things that is sophisticated and timely. Underneath their humor is generally a note of humaneness such as was to be found in "Upstairs and Down."

"Lombard" and "Lombard" which were the last of their plays to have premieres here, although we have seen several of their more recent ones.

I don't know that "The Waning Sex" compares with the best of their work, because it is inclined to be a trifle spotty. Still the performance did not add a great deal, because it dragged a bit until nearly midnight. The necessary pruning and speeding up should make the play generally satisfactory entertainment, and it really has a bright and nifty idea.

Several ear-splitting stock favorites return in the play. Chief among them are Edmund Lowe, formerly leading man at the Motocor, Berntha Mann, who was leading woman at the same theater, and Bessie Eyton, who succeeded her.

Max Montrose is being commended for several very good scenes, and Lilian Tashman was at times very amusing. Type perfect was Hazel Lowry as the little widow with the Victorian suit. The rest was of varying interest.

Frederick Truesdell, for his dignity, broad and dignified Huntley are others who deserve credit. The burden of the acting devolved on Miss Mann, but she ought to lighten her portrayal. She takes the role of the modern feminine type too seriously in a mature way.

There are several acts of vaudeville in the first part; for the most part they are very good. Olga Morrell, violinist, gets into about as impossible poses as a person can while still playing, and spoils her playing otherwise. The Gaudin Brothers, comedians, are extraordinarily clever, and the petite Edna Maude in "The Spirit of the Dance" adds some new touches to the old toe-dance steps.

Flo Lewis Is Best Bet on Hillstreet Bill

Heid's Bellest Here's one of them in the flesh, at the Hillstreet Bill. You folks who are familiar with John Heid, Jr.'s clever female hoppers will probably gasp right out loud when Flo Lewis makes an appearance for her final number on the new bill. Flo is a living picture. She acts just the way you would imagine the drawings would act.

But that isn't all of Flo's act. She starts out by giving kisses away—to the men, the women, and the little children. And from that she goes into some more, and dance numbers and then does some impersonations. The gal is clever.

Joseph Greer at the piano proves a great aid.

The stockholders had our attention drawn to the fact of Flo Lewis's new bill full force. Flo doesn't wear 'em. Neither does Polly, of the team of Polly and Oz. This couple are just about as breezy and full of pep as you could ask. Their songs are original, and when not that new, which is just as good.

"Horse Sense" has long been a by-word among our axioms. Here comes Foodles Hannaford with "Horse Nonsense." The riding clown seems to be as good as ever, in spite of his fall last week at the Orpheum. The act gets many a laugh, due to this clever pantomime.

The snap in "Snapshots of 1923" is Maurice Diamond's clever dancing. The young man is fast on his feet, and succeeds in performing a number of difficult steps. Two girls who appear with him in this combination song and dance revue are good, but not unusual.

Frank Dixon offers "Lonesome Manor," a sketch that has a queer twist at the end which you might expect when the act starts, but which you don't when the twist is due. The offering is humorous, but rather slow. Russell Carr, with his dummy, "Orca" is in the remaining act on the bill. "Orca" differs from the usual ventriloquist's dummy in that his face is as mobile as a real person's, enabling him to smile realistically, as active, as ever.

Shirley Mason does the screen honors in "Lovebound," in which a double-crossing bigamist gets what's coming to him in the last reel.

KILLED UNDER TRAIN
An unidentified Mexican was ground to death under an out-bound Southern Pacific freight train near Lincoln Park late last night when the police say he attempted to board an incoming freight from Colton. The body was taken to the J. D. Button undertaking parlors, where it awaits identification.
